

Rohit Anand

Chief Financial Officer

Rohit Anand is the Chief Financial Officer at Tech Mahindra and has been associated with the organization since November 2020. Before his current role he was the Global Business Head - Finance and led the Investor Relations function for Tech Mahindra.

Rohit brings with him a rich experience of over 20 years in various functional roles. Before joining Tech Mahindra, Rohit was the CFO of GE Healthcare, and has been in senior finance roles and CFO role in GE, for other business units like financial services, oil & gas and corporate across diverse geographies (US, China, India).

Rohit has built deep expertise in finance to be a strong business partner in driving sustainable growth. He has been focused on linking operations to financial metrics to drive right measurements and performance orientation. Rohit has also worked on various Lean and Six-Sigma projects driving the process orientation across the organization. He has worked on important projects like setting up of greenfield manufacturing plants, starting new businesses, product lines, and inorganic partnerships with customers or partners.

Rohit has completed B.A (Economics) and M.A (Economics) from the prestigious Delhi School of Economics.